MARK MCCLOUD – RALEIGH

Mark is progressing well except for a rash that he has developed over his body. Doctors think he is having an allergic reaction to something, possibly the strong antibiotic they had him on. A pump has been installed to pump out any fluid that may develop on the foot. They, also hooked up some type of port/catheter to administer an antibiotic much easier. The Doctors said his foot looks good and is healing. Said there is no infection left in the foot. Mark was even up walking on it some this week. Yesterday he was told he could go home as soon as the rash goes away. Please pray that the rash goes away and he can leave the hospital to continue to heal and recuperate from this ordeal. Mark thanks everyone for the thoughts and prayers and the messages that have been passed on to him.

WINTER FAMILY WEEKEND 2021

From Nathan Willoughby, coordinator, Winter Family Weekend:

As was announced last week, we are once again making plans to hold the Winter Family Weekend at the Galt House Hotel in Louisville, Kentucky, from Dec. 24 to 28. We hope you will join us for a weekend of fellowship and opportunities to learn how to be better Christian soldiers, along with many other fun activities!

The opening of registration for this year's Winter Family Weekend has been slightly delayed, but we do anticipate having it open in the very near future. Please stay tuned for future announcements.

To help you with planning, a list of the activities and volunteer opportunities planned for this year has been posted on the WFW website at members.cogwa.org/wfw/. We encourage you to check it out!

Please note: The Taste and Tour, and Progressive Dinner events, have a registration deadline of Dec. 10, 2021. Because there are limited spots available and we must prepay for this event, spots will be reserved "first-come, first-served," based on the time stamp of your registration and receipt of your payment. You will receive a separate email from the activity coordinator confirming your spot in these special activities prior to WFW.
